IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT: To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

OHIO RESIDENTS: The Ohio laws against discrimination requires that all creditors make credit equally available to all credit worthy customers and that credit reporting agencies maintain separate credit histories on each individual upon request. The Ohio civil rights commission administers compliance with this law.

WISCONSIN RESIDENTS: For any provision of any marital property agreement, court decree under WI ST § 766.70, or statement under WI ST § 766.59 to adversely affect the rights of the Credit Union, the Credit Union must be provided with a copy of the Agreement, decree or statement or have actual knowledge of its terms before any credit is approved or account opened.
